

PRIVACY NOTICE

Nexus IFA Limited & Nexus Financial Planning understand their obligations in regards to your fundamental right to a private life and have implemented systems and controls to ensure your rights and freedoms are protected.

Nexus IFA Limited & Nexus Financial Planning undertake to meet their obligations under the Data Protection Act, the Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations and the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

WHO WILL PROCESS YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Your personal information will be initially processed by Nexus IFA Limited and/or Nexus Financial Planning who are both Appointed Representatives of The Whitechurch Network Limited. Your personal data will also be processed by your Adviser working with Nexus and further by the On-Line Partnership Group Limited on behalf of its subsidiary company The Whitechurch Network Limited who act as our Principal for regulatory purposes. All parties will process your personal data in accordance with this Privacy Notice.

WHY IS YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION REQUIRED?

Your personal information may be required to reply to an enquiry or to enable us to take necessary steps at your request prior to entering into a contract to provide financial services and to perform such a contract. This may include identity and age verification checks, reviewing assets and liabilities, bank account validation, credit checks, preventing and detecting fraud, money laundering or other crimes and any other requirements in accordance with rules set by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) or other applicable legislation.

WHAT HAPPENS IF WE WANT TO PROCESS YOUR INFORMATION FOR OTHER REASONS?

Though there are some legal exceptions, if we wish to process your personal data for any other unrelated purpose than those we have informed you about we will notify you.

WHAT ARE THE CONSEQUENCES IF YOU DO NOT PROVIDE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Your personal data is essential to enable us to answer your enquiry or to take steps at your request prior to entering into a contract to provide financial services or to perform a contract to which you are a party. Without this information we will not be able to proceed any further.

WHAT MAKES THE PROCESSING LAWFUL?

Because the processing is necessary:

- for the performance of a contract to which you are a party or in order to take steps at your request prior to entering into a contract;
- for compliance with a legal obligation to which we are subject;
- for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest;
- for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by us.

KEEPING YOUR INFORMATION UP TO DATE

We will record your information exactly as you provide it. You may ask us to update it at any time and we will action your request promptly and where possible notify relevant third parties of any changes.

WHAT ABOUT SENSITIVE PERSONAL DATA?

Unless we are processing because it is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, we will only process sensitive personal data, such as data concerning health, with your explicit and informed consent for specific processing activities. In such cases you will be asked to sign a separate consent form to evidence this and that you understand the purpose(s) of the processing of such data. Your consent may be withdrawn at any time.

HOW WILL WE FURTHER USE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION (OUR LEGITIMATE INTERESTS)?

- To contact you to ensure that our records of your personal information are correct;
- To respond to questions or complaints you have about our services;
- To update you with changes in our terms;
- For statistical or research analysis relating to the performance of our business or that of our principal and understanding the changing needs of our clients;
- To review, improve and develop services we offer or handle complaints;
- To pursue debts or unpaid fees;
- To evidence company practices;
- To evidence the standards and processes carried out conform to the company's ethical standards and expectations;
- For direct marketing activities;
- To protect the business from risks which might be introduced by an individual.

You have the right to object to processing for these purposes and we shall cease unless we can show we have compelling legitimate grounds to continue.

PROCESSING WHEN PERFORMING A TASK CARRIED OUT IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST

We will use the information provided to protect members of the public against dishonesty, money laundering or fraudulent activities. This must necessarily be carried out without your explicit consent to ensure this function is not prejudiced. Part of this processing involves verifying your identity using third parties such as GB Group Plc or Creditsafe Business Solutions Ltd.

WHAT INFORMATION IS REQUIRED?

We only collect information that is necessary to carry out the purposes listed above. This includes information you supply and data we receive from reference agencies. Where practical and lawful we will inform you about any personal data we receive about you from third parties that you may be unaware of.

HOW SECURE WILL YOUR DATA BE?

We will ensure that your data is only accessible to authorised people in our firm and will remain confidential at all times. Appropriate security measures will be in place to prevent unauthorised access, alteration, disclosure, loss, damage or destruction of your information. If we have a contract with another individual or organisation to provide us with services or a service on our behalf to process your personal information, we'll make sure they give reassurances regarding confidentiality with appropriate security measures in place and only process your information in the way we've authorised them to. These organisations won't be entitled to use your personal information for their own purposes. If necessary, we will security check them to make sure they meet the security requirements we've set. Please contact our Data Controller if you would like further information.

WILL WE SHARE YOUR INFORMATION WITH ANYONE ELSE?

We may share your information with:

- Appropriate staff such as those who carry out financial or compliance functions.
- Organisations that need your information because we are required to provide it by law (e.g. The FCA, ombudsman services, HMRC etc).
- Organisations that carry out credit references or identity checks such as GB Group Plc or CreditSafe Business Solutions Ltd. These organisations may keep a record of the information and may disclose the fact that a search of its records was made to its other customers for the purposes of assessing the risk of giving credit, to prevent fraud and to trace debtors.
- Sometimes other authorised firms with specialist advisers, such as pension specialists, who assist us in providing suitable financial advice and services. You will be provided with their details if this applies.
- Organisations and individuals contracted by us to carry out specific administrative, financial, compliance or direct marketing functions. These contractors will only process your information under our instructions and operate under the same obligations for data protection as we ourselves operate.
- Law enforcement agencies, courts or other public authorities if we have to, or are authorised to by law.
- Product providers we use to provide financial services or for direct marketing (see below).

Where we or our Principal go through a business transaction, such as a merger, being acquired by another company or selling a portion of its assets, your information will, in most instances, be part of the assets transferred.

TRANSFERRING DATA OUTSIDE THE EUROPEAN UNION

We do not usually transfer any of your personal data outside of the EU except:

- When we need to perform pre-contractual measures (credit and identity checks) or because the checks we request are necessary for important reasons of public interest. Some companies, like Creditsafe Business Solutions Ltd, may transfer data outside of the EU to countries which do not, in the view of the EU Commission, offer an adequate level of protection. In such cases Creditsafe encrypts any data it sends to other agencies and only transfers information necessary to carry out checks.

- When we use a third party data processor contracted to perform direct marketing functions. The data they process is limited to contact details only. Some companies, like Mailchimp, may transfer and process this data outside of the EU. In such cases Mailchimp have agreed to provide an adequate level of protection for the data processed, in line & accordance with the requirements of EU Data Protection Laws.

WHAT ABOUT DIRECT MARKETING?

We will use the information provided now and in the future to carry out direct marketing activities as these are legitimate interests pursued by us. Sometimes this includes, with your consent, sharing data with product providers for their marketing activities. You can choose which method you'd prefer us to use to contact you (by email or post) and you have the right to object at any time to the use of your personal data for this purpose and we will cease marketing activity. Contact our Data Controller (see below) to let them know about your preferences.

VISITORS TO OUR WEBSITE

When someone visits our website - www.nexusifa.co.uk - we use a third party service, Google Analytics, to collect standard internet log information and details of visitor behaviour patterns. We do this to find out things such as the number of visitors to the various parts of the site. This information is only processed in a way which does not identify anyone. We do not make, and do not allow Google to make, any attempt to find out the identities of those visiting our website. If we do want to collect personally identifiable information through our website, such as on an enquiry form, we will be clear about this and explain what we intend to do with it. We will use your contact details to communicate with you, we may also, with your consent, use your information to send you news about our products and services.
